

CALL: PROOFREADING & TRANSLATION FOR INTERNATIONAL PUBLICATION

In 2024, the project Graduate International Research Opportunities (GIRO) provides a total of 12,500 € to support PhD students with international publications.

All PhD students registered or enrolled at Trier University of Applied Sciences are eligible to apply.
The submission deadline is November 4, 2024.

About Us

The DAAD-funded project Graduate International Research Opportunities (GIRO) pursues the internationalisation of doctoral structures at the Trier University of Applied Sciences with a strong network of university and practice partners in Germany and abroad. More information:

Proofreading & translation up to €1.000 per proposal

1. Joint publishing with researchers worldwide expands academic, professional and personal skills and strengthens the international network of doctoral students.
2. Sponsored PhD students receive access to a professional (foreign) language editing service to have their publication proofread and translated.
3. Funding will be provided for publications in internationally renowned journals and, in particular, for publications that are co-authored internationally with other doctoral students and researchers from foreign partner universities.

How to apply

Please send your application for proofreading / translation of an international publication proposal by November 4, 2024 to: haw-international-giro@hochschule-trier.de

Please use the attached application form. Proposals should include the following:

- Title of doctoral thesis
- Supervising professor at Trier University of Applied Sciences
- Expose of your publication proposal
- Involved persons in Germany and abroad
- Publication details (type of publication, publisher, license)

A selection committee consisting of the vice president for research, the project manager, the research and PhD coordinators as well as the project coordinator will decide on the allocation. The allocated funds must be spent within the calendar year of 2024. If possible, the publication should also be realized in the calendar year of 2024,
