Trier University of Applied Sciences is legally obliged to transmit this data. After the sample testing, the data is destroyed.

For these purposes, the data will be stored for a period of six years after the end of the grant if you are selected for the scholarship program. If your application is unsuccessful in this selection process, we will store your data for a maximum of 24 months in order to be able to consider you in the succession procedure.

2. Application Instructions

Online Application Form:

Reapplications are submitted via the online application platform DSTIP. For this purpose, you need the login data that was allocated to you during your first registration on the platform. With these, you can log into your application account during the application period and upload the new documents for the reapplication. Please take note of the question whether your application is a reapplication at the beginning of the online form and tick the box 'yes' to indicate that you wish to enter a reapplication.

Apart from the required fields, it is up to you which details you provide and with which information you present yourself as a candidate for the scholarship. In the selection process, we can only consider those details in your favor that are presented to us and that are verified by corresponding evidence, if required. For this reason, we recommend that you also answer the questions in the online form that are not compulsory as completely as possible. Please take special care to check your details in the application form for correctness and update them if necessary.

In addition to the information you entered in your first application, the following new documents are mandatory:

- Short report about the period in which you received the scholarship (concerning your personal development and your studies, if applicable including personal or family circumstances; max. one page)
- Actual confirmation of enrolment (Immatrikulationsbescheinigung) (for the upcoming winter semester)
- Actual proof of your academic performance including ECTS points obtained during the grant period (preferably the pdf-document titled "Leistungsübersicht" that can be downloaded from QIS)
- If applicable, newly obtained Bachelor's degree certificate (applicants for a Master's program or students already enrolled in a Master's program)

Your application may include the following proofs (certificates, notifications, official documents, references) if applicable:

- New certificates
- Any new references from the past academic year (internships, recent social commitment and volunteer work, awards, further education etc.)
- References about changed personal or family circumstances (e.g. illness or disability of your own, caring for one's own children, especially as a single parent, or for close relatives that need care, working in the family business, employment to finance your studies)
- If applicable, proof and exact details of internships and/or stays abroad that will be conducted during the lecture period in the next two semesters. For internships and/or stays abroad that are prescribed in the examination regulations: corresponding excerpt from the examination regulations.

Information without the corresponding evidence cannot be considered.

If your application documents are not written in German or English, an officially certified translation into German must be added.

Instructions for Uploading the Attachments:

- If possible, please upload all documents in one pdf-file.
- Please name your pdf-file "surname_first name_year of your reapplication".

During the application period, documents can still be submitted after you have already started your application. In order to do so, you may reenter your application account with your login data, which you received upon your first registration on the platform. This is only possible until the end of the application period.
